

Application for Philadelphia Public Financial Authority Board of Directors

Qualified, interested individuals are encouraged to apply to serve as members of the Board of Directors for the recently approved Philadelphia Public Financial Authority.

The Philadelphia Public Financial Authority is a new independent entity created to promote community economic development by developing a project or affiliate of the authority that will become a public bank. The Authority will engage in activities directed toward improving the social and economic conditions of all Philadelphians, with a preferential directive to serve the financial needs of underserved residents, small businesses and economically distressed areas.

Leadership Positions

At this time, applications are being solicited for:

- Board of Directors – a 9-member body appointed by the Mayor.

In the future, the PPFA will also be seeking applicants for:

- Investment and Lending Policy Advisory Board (aka “Policy Board”) – a 9-member body designated by the PPFA Board of Directors

Nomination and Application Process

Applicants to either board must be recommended by Philadelphia-based community groups substantially focused on one or more of the following advocacy areas:

1. Environmental justice
2. Racial justice
3. Low-income housing
4. Public education
5. Public health
6. Cooperative development
7. Neighborhood-based small business development
8. Gender justice
9. Public transportation
